8. Young people - Christian Aid

Provide a brief outline of your project and describe how it relates to the category.

Describe the detail of your project including:

- A brief description of your church building (if any) and congregation
- Planning details (to whom was your activity directed: Church members? local community? What were the aims?)
- Activities undertaken: describe this in some depth – we need to get a real flavour of the work done:
 - Why did you decide on this activity?
 - What happened?
 - Where did it take place?
 - When did it happen? A one-off event, a series, drip-drip-drip of information over long period?
 - Who was involved (church members? Outside agencies? Local community groups?) and how many?
 - Any outcomes measured and how
 - Any comments from participants

Include in your application anything which substantiates the activities undertaken:

- Posters for events
- Service sheets
- Photographs of events or practical thing accomplished
- Copies of questionnaires/articles/leaflets produced in relation to your activity
- Any media coverage

How do you fulfill what the judges are looking for in your category?

Would you recommend another church carrying out a similar project? What advice would you give?

What do you think the church learned has together as a result of carrying out the project?

Anything else you would like to tell us?

Send your application form, together with any accompanying material, and a £5 cheque made out to 'Church Times', to:

Green Church Awards
